

Instructions for Website:

The following guidelines can be used for people who wish to send articles to this site to be published.

If you have a piece of information you feel is relevant to this site and would like it to be published, here are some instructions you can follow.

Articles:

1. In order to publish an article to this site any information sent to us needs to be in electronic format, preferably Microsoft Word format.
2. If it is a hard copy, the article needs to be converted into electronic format. This can be done by scanning the document or by re-typing it into word.

Note:

If you contact your local library they will be able to assist you in scanning this information.

3. If you are unable to do this, talk to someone who can convert the document to electronic format. This may be a neighbour, a friend or someone who has experience of computers.

Images.

1. In order to publish a photo to this site any information sent to us needs to be in electronic format, preferably JPG format for pictures.
2. If you have a photo this can be scanned.

Note:

If you contact your local library they will be able to assist you in scanning this information.

3. If you have the negative, you can contact your local Kodak or photo print shop and they can convert this negative to a digital image. This can then be sent to us in electronic format.

All information can be e-mailed to info@mayomemorialpeacepark.org . If there are any queries please feel free to contact us at the above e-mail address.
