

Award for Ballina man

Lieutenant Francis J. Maginn, London Regiment, attached to the Rifle Brigade, son of Mr. John Maginn, Bank of Ireland, Ballina, has been awarded the distinguished Service Order. Lieutenant Maginn was in Canada when the war broke out. He volunteered , joining the Canadians, and afterwards got a commission in the London regiment, in which his brother, late Captain P.H.C. Maginn , served.

(5th January, 1918)